

Internship in the Institute of Diversity Studies and International Relations at the University of Teacher Education Styria

Diversity Studies

Do you want to go abroad and gain new experiences? Are you looking for an internship? Be part of our Institute of Diversity Studies and International Relations! Work with us and get to know many people from around the world!

What are we looking for?

You are fluent in German or in English and above that you are motivated to learn something new? Then you are the right one for us!

Your fields of responsibility:

- administrative tasks
- writing new articles about Erasmus+ and studying abroad (<http://www.erasmus-journal.eu/>)
- additional help with organization of lectures and courses for teachers in Styria

Who are we?

We are a friendly team at the Institute of Diversity Studies and International Relations (Ortweinplatz 1/II, 8010 Graz, Austria). There is a positive working atmosphere, we love travelling, meet people from other countries and promote our university and our projects. Students can apply for a scholarship (Erasmus+) that provides many monetary benefits. The internship lasts between 2-12 months, whatever fits best for you! However, if we have to choose between several candidates, we may prefer someone who stays longer. The starting date is in September 2018. Your usual workweek is 24 hours per week, you will be off during Austrian school holidays!

Payment:

The Erasmus+ program finances the internship. The exact amount of your salary depends on your home country. For more detailed information please contact the international office of your university.

Perks:

- Meet other international students!
- Come to Austria!
- Practice your foreign languages and learn about other cultures!
- Working hours are quite flexible!

Are you interested?

Deadline for the application is until June 25: contact is Prof. Katharina Lanzmaier-Ugri, Bed
E-Mail: katharina.lanzmaier-ugri@phst.at