

SLIDEshow Project

We are inviting you to join our Online-Q&A

Self-Regulated Learning and its Applications in Online- and Home-Learning Environments

May 13th, 18:00-19:30 CET

How can we support our students' home-learning efforts from an SRL perspective? What challenges have arisen in this new situation and how can we best tackle them?

An international expert panel will be happy to discuss and answer your questions regarding Self-Regulated Learning.

Who is it for?

- Teachers
- Teacher-Educators
- Students in teacher training
- Policy Makers
- Everyone interested in SRL and its application

Our Partners:

- Vrije Universiteit Brussel
- University of Oulu
- Pädagogische Hochschule Wien
- GO! onderwijs van de Vlaamse Gemeenschap
- Doukas School (Athens)

If you are interested, please fill in the following form and let us know the issues you want to talk about! The link to our Zoom-conference will be sent out after completing the registration.
